"Professional accountants continue to be recognized for their strong technical knowledge. A strong technical background is still a foundational trait for professional accountants in protecting the public interest. Professional accounting bodies across the globe are recognizing the increased importance of higher-order cognitive skills such as critical thinking, problem solving, and analytical ability. Many accounting professors continue to struggle to find ways to focus on the development of higher-order skills in undergraduate programs. Case analysis is an important tool for developing these higher-order skills for financial reporting"--
