Fundamentals of Management, 4/e, an abridged version of Management, 8/e, provides up-to-date coverage to key functional areas (planning, organizing, leading, and controlling) plus new research and examples, all in a brief format. From respected author Ricky Griffin, this skills-based text gives instructors the flexibility to integrate their own cases, exercises, and projects while continuing to provide them with a strong theoretical framework. New! Each chapter also contains either a Technology Toolkit, Business of Ethics, or Today's Management Issues boxed feature. These are intended to briefly depart from the flow of the chapter to highlight or extend especially interesting or emerging points and issues relating to new technology and its role in management or ethical issues and questions facing managers today. New! Test Preppers, located at the end of every chapter, prompt students with true/false and multiple-choice quizzes to gauge their retention and comprehension of chapter material. The answers are found at the end of the text. New! HM e-Study Student CD-ROM is carefully tailored to supplement and enhance the content of the text, including ACE self-tests, selected videos, chapter outlines, company web links, a glossary, flashcards, learning objectives, ready notes, self-assessment exercises, and chapter summaries. The CD-ROM is free with the text. Knowledgebank Icon in the text refers students to the new Knowledgebank feature on the HM e-Study CD. Here they can find additional information about particular topics in the text. It can also be used to find further management knowledge or for a research project, and it can be found only on HM e-Study CD

ROM. Building Management Skills exercises appear throughout the text and are organized around the set of basic management skills introduced in Chapter 1. The Skills Self-Assessment Instrument helps readers learn something about their own approach to management. Finally, an Experiential Exercise provides additional action-oriented learning opportunities, usually for group settings. Pedagogical features that support learning are features throughout the text. In addition to the end-of-the-chapter exercises, every chapter includes important learning objectives, a chapter outline, an opening incident, boldface key terms, a summary of key points, questions for review, questions for analysis, and an end-of-the-chapter case with questions. Eduspace, a flexible, powerful, and customizable e-learning platform, provides instructors with text-specific online courses and content for Management, 4/e. Eduspace permits the instructor to create part or all of their course online using the widely recognized tools of Blackboard and quality text-specific content of Houghton Mifflin (HMCo). Instructors can quickly and easily assign homework exercises, quizzes and tests, tutorials and supplementary study materials. Pre-loaded material can be modified, or instructors can add their own.

MANAGEMENT, 12E includes several innovative pedagogical features to help students understand their management capabilities and learn what it's like to manage in an organization today. Each of the 19 chapters begins with an opening questionnaire that engages the reader's interest, directly connects to the topic of the chapter, and enables students to see how they respond to situations and challenges that real-life managers typically face. A New Manager Self-Test in each chapter provides students with further insight into how they would function in the real world of management. The Remember This bullet-point summaries at the end of each major chapter section give students a snapshot of the key points and concepts covered in that section. The end-of-chapter questions have been carefully revised to encourage critical thinking and application of chapter concepts, and Small Group Breakout exercises give students the opportunity to apply concepts while building teamwork skills. Ethical dilemmas, all-new end-of-chapter cases, and a fully updated set of On the Job video cases help students sharpen their diagnostic skills for management problem solving. The chapter sequence in MANAGEMENT is organized around the management functions of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling. These four functions effectively encompass management research and the characteristics of the manager's job.
